Imagine

Kids Get Paid to Eat + Learn + Work...is a fun community project that teaches kids leadership skills, positive life values, and work habits.

Every weekend, kids enjoy writing gigs to review the Best Food. Kids choose restaurants, develop own content, and follow thru.

Kids create purposeful foodie projects, and make a lasting difference. R4G's fun goal for kids is to get 100 reviews done by July 1, 2020.

Purpose

We Make Life Fun and Rewarding for Kids
To Learn Leadership Skills + Positive Values + Work Habits

Learning Work Habits is Rewarding

Kids who follow thru, and do a great job;
get more fun foodie writing gigs.

Kids can create their own purposeful foodie writing gigs to make a lasting difference
(i.e. 6th Grade Boy, Who Has Type 1 Diabetes, Creating List of Gluten Free Dishes in SFV)

Kids learn to lead projects, inspire others, and communicate effectively
(Work is More Rewarding When It is Hard, Than Easier)

How Recruiting for Good Funds Kids Get Paid to Eat

Companies Retain Recruiting for Good to Find and Hire Talented Professionals

A portion of every placement fee paid helps fund fun Weekend Gigs for Kids.
1 Placement Fee = 20 Gigs for Kids

Recruiting for Good is funding all the dining delivered to kids' homes.
Currently we are serving families in the San Fernando Valley and the Westside.

RECRUITING FOR GOOD

CARLOS CYMERMAN
Managing Partner + Fun Advocate

About Carlos Cymerman Founder, Fun+Advocate, Recruiting for Good and Kids Get Paid to Eat

Mr. Cymerman's first job was in Middle School, and he continued to work thru High School, College, and Grad School. Before he started his recruiting career, he worked as a teacher, and was in Grad School studying to become a therapist. In the last 20 years, he has successfully placed over 1,000 talented professionals.

What has made him successful is his love for gratefully serving people, finding solutions for clients, and deep care for the welfare of both candidates and companies alike.

Purpose Before Profit.

For the last 10 years, Mr. Cymerman has been immersed in community service, creating his own projects (www.OurMomsWork.org), sponsoring creative writing contests, and taking leadership roles in a nonprofit. He is uniquely qualified to understand what it takes to 'use your talent for good,' have fun, and be successful too.

He looks forward to instilling these values thru,
'Kids Get Paid to Eat + Learn + Work.'

About Recruiting for Good

Since 1998, Recruiting for Good has been a purpose driven staffing company, generating proceeds to fund social projects.
